

Summer Funding

Students are eligible to apply for aid if they attend a summer session. Students may only receive institutional aid for two summer sessions. Each summer term of aid is equivalent to  $\frac{1}{2}$  a semester. A student cannot have more than 9 semesters of aid- including summer sessions. Applications for summer aid are available beginning in early March.

Attendance at a Duke Summer Session will always be considered more than half-time/full-time as long as a course eligible for at least one academic credit is being taken. Budgets are determined using the actual tuition charge incurred by the student for the credits he/she is taking. Eligibility for need-based aid is then determined based on the information submitted on the FAFSA and Profile forms.
